

2021 Calendar Photo Contest

Rules:

- Any and all photographers are eligible: amateurs, hobbyists and professionals.
- Up to three (3) separate, different entries may be submitted by each photographer.
 - The photograph(s) must be of an IALHA registered horse.
 - The image(s) should be well representative of the Andalusian (Spanish, Lusitano or half bred) horse, and its use, beauty, correct confirmation, heritage, versatility, and/or temperament, etc.
 - The photo should be high resolution
- Complete the entry form which includes:
 - A brief “name” of the image, as well as the horse’s name, owner, breeder, when and where it was taken.
 - Attestation that the photograph(s) submitted is (are) original, unaltered, and was (were) taken by the photographer in the last two years.
 - Signature of the agreement giving IALHA permission to use image(s) in whole or part, in the calendar and other publications or advertisements (print and online), IALHA website and Social Media. Photo credit will be given whenever used.
- Along with the entry form, include:
 - High resolution digital photo (500 kb or larger) of the photograph(s)
- Entries must be postmarked prior to the OCTOBER 1st 2020 deadline.
- They may be emailed to ialhapub@gmail.com

Procedure:

- From the entries, the Publications committee will select recommend 13 selections (one cover and 12 months).
- Preference will be given to those that are felt by the committee to be representative of the Andalusian (Spanish, Lusitano or half bred) horse, and its use, beauty, correct confirmation, heritage, versatility, and/or temperament. The committee’s decisions are binding, final and nonnegotiable.
- The winning works and photographers will be prominently featured on the IALHA’s 2021 calendar, and advertisements, adding up to thousands of marketing opportunities!
- A brief photographer bio of 200 or fewer words, including an image of the photographer will be requested from each photographer when they are notified of having been selected.

Thank you for being a part of the IALHA Calendar Photo contest!
