

IALHA 2022 ART CONTEST

Rules:

- Abstract or representational works in any paint or drawing art medium are acceptable.
- Up to 2 entries may be submitted by each artist.
- To be included in the contest, the artwork should be well representative of the Andalusian or Lusitano horse, and its use, beauty, confirmation, heritage, or majesty.
- The work(s) presented must be original and created by the person entering it.
- The artwork or a quality print of the original must be available for sale if selected as the winner.
- Complete the entry form which includes:
  - A brief description of the piece including medium/technique, dimensions, and framing (if applicable).
  - Attestation that the art submitted is original, created by, and signed by the artist.
  - Signature of agreement giving IALHA permission to use images of the art in whole or part including but not limited to: advertisements (print and/or online), IALHA website and Social Media, and/or apparel or other merchandise. All proceeds will go to IALHA. Use and designs will be created and at the sole discretion of the IALHA.
- Along with the entry form, include:
  - A brief artist bio
  - At least two and up to 4 High resolution digital photos (500 kb or larger) of each entry. It is preferred that one of the photos be of the artist with the artwork in frame.
- Entries must be postmarked prior to the October 15, 2021 deadline. They may be emailed to lmillsaps@charter.net or mailed to IALHA 22 Inverness Center Parkway #155 Birmingham AL 35242

IALHA 2022 ART CONTEST

Contest:

- A photograph of each submission received by the entry deadline may be published on the IALHA social media platforms for review and interest by IALHA members and followers.
- The IALHA Show Committee will recommend at least three works for display and selection at the 2021 National Show. The IALHA's final decision is binding, final and nonnegotiable.
- The final winning art selection will be announced and the artist will be notified before November 30, 2021.

The winning work:

- will be prominently featured on the IALHA's National Show program, advertisements, and merchandise, adding up to thousands of marketing opportunities!
- and artist will be featured in an article on the IALHA Weblog.
- will be on display during the 2022 National Championship show and auctioned in the Silent Auction(original or sizable signed print) and all proceeds will go to IALHA. Original artwork or a high quality, signed print of the original will qualify (artist's choice). The IALHA will be responsible for the cost of shipping to the show venue.
- artist will be awarded a 10 x 10 booth space (free of charge) in the National show vendor area. Along with the winning piece, any other art may displayed and/or offered for sale by the artist. (If the artist is not able to attend the show, the winning work will be displayed by the IALHA).

Thank you for being a part of the IALHA Art Contest!